

Position Available: Technical / Office Assistant

Camrosa Water District is seeking an immediate full / part time Technical /Office Assistant for a one-year contractual position.

Duties would include:

- Familiarity in the use and administration of Geographical Information Systems. Experience working in an ESRI® Enterprise environment preferred.
- Experience working with Standard Query Language and Transact SQL. Experience with Microsoft SQL preferred.
- Basic understanding of computers and computer networks. Familiarity with layers 1-4 of the OSI model preferred.
- Ability to synthesize data from various datasets / reports for presentation to management and the public.
- Experience in environmental science and / or resource management desirable. Understanding of geology / hydrogeology / hydrology preferred.

For more information or submittal of digital resumes, contact:

Terry Curson, District Engineer

terryc@camrosa.com